AGRICULTURAL CONVENTION.

Representatives of Colleges and Experiment Stations in Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The convention of representatives of agricultural colleges and experiment stations began here today. The assembly takes place in the seed room of the Department of Agriculture, a hall of considerable size in the new building in the agricultural grounds. The store of last year's seeds, now amounting to about two car loads has been piled up in bags at one end of the hall and covered with bunting, with which material and flowers and plants from the hot houses the hall is tastefully decorated. There were present at the opening between 50 and 60 delegates, representing all the leading agricultural colleges and experimental stations of the United States. A temporary organization was effected by the election of Commissioner Coleman as Temporary Chairman and Prof. George Fairchild as Temporary Secretary. A Committee on Credentials was named. Commissioner Coleman in his opening address of welcome briefly sketched the discussions in Congress which preceded the magnificent grants of lands for the endowment of agricultural colleges in the several States of the Union, and said it would be conceded that the general public professed a degree of disappointment in the outcomes of these institutions. The predominate idea in Congress was that of interesting young men in farming operations and in the fundamental principles of plant culture by showing how they might realize profits in raising crops without diminishing the fertility of the soil. Facts were submitted to Congress showing that the average of yields was gradually diminishing in quantity, and the soil was being rapidly exhausted of plant food. To arrest this somewhat alarming tendency toward the spoliation of arable lands it was deemed advisable to encourage institutions where the results of scientific investigation in vegetable physiology would be exemplified and their practical application in fields and gardens clearly illustrated. The results had not been commensurate with public expectations. Complaint was made that comparatively few graduates became farmers, and the truth of this must to some extent be admitted.

The Last Rites.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The remains of the late Lieutenant Commander Gorringe were buried this morning from Grace Church, where the services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Huntington, and the reverend gentleman in his sermon referred to the many and patriotic services of the young officer. In accordance with the wish of the deceased the funeral was strictly private and only intimate friends and relatives of the family were present. The body was placed in a sealed casket in the vault of the church preparatory to its removal for final interment in Philadelphia.

Flight of Carrier Pigeons.

NEW ORLEANS, July 8.—Four homing pigeons from Brooklyn, N. Y., were released here at 7.38 this morning by Sergeant Herman of the Signal Service. They took a northerly direction.

Suicide in Saco.

[Special to the Press.]

SACO, July 8.—Daniel Guilford, 58 years of age, committed suicide by drowning in Deep Brook today. He had lately shown signs of insanity and been in feeble health. He lived some distance out of the city and this morning in company with his wife he started for the city to consult a physician, and on reaching the brook leaped from his carriage and ran into the woods. The alarm was given and neighbors scoured the woods, but it was not until afternoon that his lifeless body was found in the water.

CEN. GRANT.

The Patient's Mind Bright and Cheerful Yesterday.

He Receives a Visit from Mexican Journalists.

MT. MCGREGOR, N. Y., July 8.—General Grant was asleep soon after 11 o'clock last night and slept until 3 this morning, when Dr. Douglass cleared the patient's throat, after food had been taken. The patient and physician then sat for half an hour in conversation, during which the general's mind seemed bright and cheerful. There were evidences of it in what he wrote Dr. Douglass. After this the general slept until 8 o'clock this morning, when food and treatment were again given.

Among the visitors this afternoon was the Rev. Father Edmund Didier of Baltimore, Md., a Catholic clergyman. After a few moments' conversation with General Grant, the clergyman said: "We are all praying for you, General Grant," and the general wrote in reply, "I feel very grateful to the Christian people of the land for their prayers on my behalf. There is no sect or religion as shown in the Old or New Testament to which this does not apply—Catholics, Protestants and Jews and all good people of the nation of all politics as well as religion and all nationalities seem to have united in wishing or praying for my improvement. I am a great sufferer all the time but the facts I have related are a compensation for much of it. All that I can do is to pray that the prayers of all these good people may be answered so far as to have us all meet in another and better world. I cannot speak even in a whisper."

The event of the afternoon was the visit to the mountain of twenty editors of the Mexican Associated Press. At 6.30 the entire party were conducted to the cottage by Col. Fred Grant and as the editors gathered on the piazza General Grant arose to meet them. Mr. E. H. Talbot was presented by Colonel Grant to his father, and Mr. Talbot in turn presented each of the party by name and each bowed his acknowledgments. The general was then seated and Senor Augustin Arreggo de Anda, secretary of the Associated Press of Mexico, thus addressed the general in behalf of his colleagues:

"My great interest in Mexico dates back to the war between the United States and that country, and my interest was increased when four European monarchses attempted to set up their institutions on this continent, selecting Mexico a territory adjoining. It was an outrage on human rights for a foreign nation to attempt to transfer her institutions and her rulers to that territory of a civilized people without their consent and they were fearfully punished for their crime. I hope Mexico may soon begin an upward and prosperous departure.

"In the name of the visiting committee of Mexican journalists, who are visiting this country, I desire to say that they could not pass so near to a great friend of Mexico without coming to pay their respects to the hero of Richmond: He who broke the chains of slavery, in order that the iron of the chains around the slaves might be made into rails for the progress of the country, and thus unite two republics by bonds of steel."

In response, Gen. Grant wrote as follows, while the entire party stood around in silence:

She has all the conditions; she has the people; she has the soil; she has the climate, and she has the minerals. The conquest of Mexico will not be any easy task in the future."

The visitors returned to Saratoga early in the evening.

After the reception of the Mexican editors the General was very much fatigued. Dr. Douglass observed this fact, and on his suggestion the General retired at 7 o'clock, and at 11.30 p. m. he was fast asleep.

Senator McPherson Speaks.

NEW YORK, July 8.—In reply to the charges made by a Trenton paper of a conspiracy with Senator Sewell in favor of the Pennsylvania railroad, Senator McPherson of New Jersey furnishes an affidavit, in which he says: "The charge is briefly that Wm. J. Sewell and myself met together in room 26, Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, Dec. 5, 1878, and then and there concocted a scheme to secure and advance the political fortunes of both Sewell and myself, and also to assist the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The man who makes this statement was either crazy, an egregious liar or greatly mistaken."

Myriads of Frogs in Texas.

GALVESTON, Tex., July 8.—A special to the News from Eagle Pass says that myriads of frogs infest Eagle Pass and vicinity. They made their appearance three days ago, and have multiplied so fast that the earth is literally covered with them. They are moving in a southeasterly direction, and are now on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande. This unusual phenomenon in a country where frogs are a rarity, is regarded by superstitious Mexicans as a forerunner of some dire calamity.

A Horrible Fate.

CINCINNATI, O., July 8.—An accident of a peculiarly horrible nature occurred near Harrison yesterday. A Blue line freight train was derailed and in a car half filled with lime were two colored tramps. When the accident occurred the car was overturned and the lime thrown over the tramps. Their screams betrayed their presence, but it took an hour to dig them out, by which time they were fearfully burned and will lose their eyes if not their lives. They were brought to the hospital here.

THE INDIANS.

Cheyennes on the War Path in Southern Kansas.

Settlers Massacred and Stock Driven Off.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 8.—This city was considerably aroused last night by the reported reception of telegrams announcing the arrival of Cheyenne Indians in the counties of Pratt and Comanche, and that the marauders were doing great damage to life and property. During the evening Gov. Martin received the following from Col. Quiff, of the Santa Fe road:

The day operator at Wichita says that an outbreak was reported in the southern part of Pratt county yesterday. Several were killed and the rest of the people driven off. The stock is all driven out. One man who came into Pratt today, says he is the only one left in his family, the rest were killed, but the operator does not know how many there were. All possible exertions are being made by the government to protect the citizens of the State from outrages by the Indians.

TOPEKA, Ks., July 8.—The sheriff of Kingman county states that news has been received that Nescatunga, a little town of 150 persons, is in the possession of the Indians and that Coldwater some fifteen miles west, is surrounded by them. The sheriff says these reports may be sensational but he requests Governor Martin to send arms so that they may be prepared.

The governor has ordered the military to be ready to move at a moment's notice, and has directed the sheriff of Finney county and the mayor of Dodge City to organize forces and send out runners to notify the settlers. General Augur telegraphs Governor Martin that he has no information from Fort Reno of an outbreak there but has ordered three companies of cavalry to Barbour county.

A report comes from Pratt Centre that a large number of settlers have arrived there, fleeing from the Indians, who were reported moving north. They also report the massacre of a family named Schofield at Spring Creek.

Advices from Kingman now state that the Indian scare is unfounded and that settlers who had fled to forts and larger settlements are returning to their homes.

THE TEACHERS.

More from the American Institute of Instruction.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 8.—The fourth session of the fifty-sixth annual meeting of the American Institute of Instruction was very largely attended, at least 900 people being present. Despite efforts to secure ventilation, the heat was intense. This did not prevent the closest attention being given to the various papers, which were of a very high order. President Patterson took his seat on the platform at 9 o'clock, and devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. George J. Magill, rector of Trinity church of this city. Mr. Frederick W. Tilton, principal of the Rogers High School, was introduced and read a paper upon "The Teacher's Duty to his Office and to the Community."

At the conclusion of the address Mr. J. C. Greenough spoke briefly in commendation of the sentiments expressed.

The committee on the Bicknell fund reported that in accordance with the recommendations of the board of examiners they have awarded a prize of $30 to Gen. T. J. Morgan of the State Normal School of Rhode Island, who is found to be the author of the essay over the signature of "Pestalozzi." H. M. Willard, principal of Vermont Academy, Saxton's River, Vt., contributed a valuable paper on "The Education Needed," which was discussed by Mr. Wm. A. Morey of Boston.

After a recess, Miss Lulu Stanley of Boston was introduced and recited a humorous selection, "Awfully Lovely Philosophy," which created much mirth and applause. She was recalled and recited a second sketch, "Platitudinous Ponderosity."

The next address was by Prof. S. R. Thompson, his theme being "Too Much of a Good Thing," in which he urged reducing the number of studies in the city course and requiring the scholar to do more work by himself without the teacher's aid. This was discussed by Messrs. Barrows of Hartford, Miner of Boston, and Richards of Washington.

This evening's session opened with a song by Prof. J. L. Frank, entitled "Old Heidelberg."

Miss Alice E. Freeman, President of Wellesley College, was then introduced and delivered an address upon the "Influences of female education upon national development." Miss Lulu Marion Stanley of Boston followed with humorous readings. Col. Homer B. Sprague, head master of the Girls High School of Boston was presented and read a paper upon "An educational party needed." The meeting then adjourned until Thursday.

POLITICAL NEWS.

Pennsylvania Republican Convention.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 8.—The Republican State Convention to nominate a candidate for State Treasurer, met in the hall of the House of Representatives this morning. William Rogers was made temporary chairman, and was loudly applauded when he declared that all the differences, if there were any, would be settled within the party lines. A resolution was offered and referred that the Republican party of Pennsylvania demand the enforcement of railroad anti-discrimination. A resolution to change the rules, doing away with senatorial delegates in the future and making one representative for each 2,000 votes, and one for every additional thousand, to be estimated on the last presidential vote, was referred to the committee on rules. The convention then proceeded to name the members of the State committee.

The committee on permanent organization reported in favor of James S. Biery of Lehigh for chairman, and a vice president from each senatorial district, as well as four secretaries. The report was adopted.

Upon taking the chair, Mr. Biery spoke of the party being united, and said that whoever was nominated would secure the full vote of the party, as it was the same in spirit as in years gone by.

The resolution committee not being ready to report, the convention proceeded to name candidates for State Treasurer. Col. M. S. Quay of Beaver, J. H. Longenecker of Belford, H. C. Greenwalt of Franklin, J. A. McDevitt of Lancaster, and T. H. Wighton of Blair, were placed in nomination. The first ballot resulted:

Quay	196½
Longenecker	27½
Greenwalt	7
McDevitt	15
Wighton	5

The nomination of Quay was made unanimous, not a dissenting voice being heard.

A platform was reported and adopted.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

HOISTED A RED FLAG.

Cleveland, O., Strikers Attempting to Shut Down Mills.

The Entire Police Force of the City to March Upon Them.

CLEVELAND, O., July 8.—The strikers at noon today assembled in the 14th ward, elevated a red flag and started for the mills in Newburg, which they surrounded. On arriving, they made a great deal of noise, but they did not appear to do any damage to life or property. The police are prepared to move on the mob at once if it becomes turbulent. Seventy policemen proceeded at 6 o'clock this morning to the Union Steel and Screw Works on Case avenue, and escorted the workmen to their places and the works were started. These works were forced to shut down yesterday by the strikers. The entire police force of the city are under orders, and should an outbreak occur they will be hurried to the scene in short order. A large number of the striking iron workers who had obtained work on the Wilson avenue paving contract were this forenoon waited upon by a delegation of strikers and forced to throw down their shovels and accompany them. The strikers will hold a meeting tonight and to-morrow morning, and will again move on the screw works and close it if possible.

FIRE RECORD.

Loss of Life in a Burning Hotel.

LOUISIANA, MO., July 8.—The Globe hotel caught fire yesterday forenoon from the explosion of a lamp and burned to the ground. The building was three stories high. There were thirty-five guests asleep at the time of the fire, all of whom were awakened. Many of them leaped from the second and third story windows to the ground, clad in their night clothes. Dr. Lonergan, who jumped from the third floor, struck the brick sidewalk and was killed almost instantly. Other guests, besides losing their trunks and all their clothing, received severe injuries, breaking their legs and arms in jumping. The loss on property is about $10,000.

Crops in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., July 8.—The Bee printed today, reports of crops from every county in the State of Nebraska. These reports show a flattering prospect. A vast increase in acreage is reported, due to the rapid settlement of the State. Corn is still king by a large majority, both in acreage and condition. In many places it exceeds the acreage of last year. The wheat acreage has decreased in the older and settled counties but the new ones make up the deficiency. The outlook is generally for a 90 per cent crop. Oats and flax have increased their acreage, and the condition of both is excellent.

French Troops Besieged in Madagascar.

Fifteen Alleged Anarchists Arrested in Brussels.

Frenchmen Beset by Hovas.

PARIS, July 8.—The news received from Madagascar is of the most serious nature. Admiral Miot is in want of reinforcements, and is obliged to remain strictly on the defensive. Twelve hundred Hovas besiege the French who are occupying Mazanga fort. The besieged are able to communicate with Admiral Miot only by sea.

A $200,000 Blaze in a London Suburb.

LONDON, July 8.—Young's glue factory and Powell's tannery, together covering three acres of ground, in Bermondsey, a London suburb in Surrey county, were destroyed by fire today. The loss is $200,000.

Alleged Anarchists Arrested in the City of Brussels.

BRUSSELS, July 8.—Fifteen arrests were made today by the police of the city of individuals said to be leaders of an Anarchist society here. The men are charged with being the prime movers in a plot having for its object the assassination of a number of the government, who, by their acts, have made themselves odious to that body.

Foreign Notes.

Herr Wodianer, the great Austrian financier is dead.

MEXICO.

Trouble Over the Settlement of the English Debt Continues.

CITY OF MEXICO via GALVESTON, July 8.—Trouble over the settlement of the English debt continues and additional arrests of students and opposition editors have been made and the public mind is much alarmed fearing that if the students continue their agitation there may be serious disturbances. As the government is determined to put down mobs without any compunctions, the streets are patrolled at night by troops and cavalry regiments have their horses ready saddled day and night.

GENERAL NEWS.

Delegates from the different agricultural colleges of the country met in convention in Washington yesterday.

The seventh annual convention of the American Philological Association was opened in the Sloane physical laboratory at Yale College, Tuesday, and continued in session yesterday.

Gen. Goode left Lewiston, Idaho, Tuesday, for Victoria, B. C., to request the authorities to hold Hibbs, the defaulting postmaster, until Inspector Brown returns from Washington whither he started yesterday morning with papers for certification by the Secretary of State. Brown will then proceed to Victoria with a paper duly attested, and Hibbs will be tried under the extradition treaty for forgery. The authorities are doubtful whether the charge of forgery will hold.

Benjamin Anderson was killed and six other persons were severely injured at Felton, Del., yesterday by the bursting of the boiler of a threshing machine.

A committee of scientists recommends that copper rods be placed around the roof of the Washington monument, at each joint with 200 needle rods projecting therefrom to protect it from lightning.

ST. ALBAN COMMANDERY.

How the Portland Knights were Entertained in Lewiston.

The Lewiston Journal says that the "Knights Templar of St. Alban and Lewiston Commanderies paraded from 5.30 to 7 p. m., Tuesday on the return of St. Alban from Lake Auburn. Everybody says that it was one of the finest Masonic parades ever seen in Lewiston. The St. Alban Commandery is a fine body of men, and everybody regrets that so solid and substantial a class of citizens as they who compose Lewiston Commandery cannot be seen more often under their Knightly banner and wearing the sword and plume. Lewiston Commandery turned out seventy-five Knights in line. Headed by Perkins band they marched to the head of Turner street, Auburn, where they met St. Alban Commandery. Lewiston Commandery bore its new banner for the first time in public. It was made in New York for the Commandery at a cost of $175.

The line of march was formed on Court street. A parade was made over both Auburn and Lewiston. The column was halted at the residence of D. B. Stevens, and also at the residence of Col. F. M. Drew for refreshments.

The ladies and guests followed in carriages provided by Lewiston Commandery.

The Knights filed into City Hall at seven o'clock. Chandler's Band played a march that delighted the crowds. Once inside the hall, St. Alban Commandery was stationed in line at the right of the hall with Lewiston Commandery at the left—the two oCmmanderies facing each other.

Eminent Commander Sleeper of Lewiston Commandery, made an excellent address of welcome to which Eminent Commander Albro E. Chase replied in a most felicitous manner. An intermission of 15 minutes followed for social enjoyment.

It will be a long time before a handsomer lunch will be spread in City Hall, than that of Tuesday evening. Others in the Commandery parlors of the Sir Knights may be richer in the trappings of these modern pilprims, but none ever looked more inviting beneath the glare of the electric lights of City Hall. Four long tables stretched down the hall. Plates were laid for two hundred and fifty. The tables were bright and fragrant with flowers and pyramids of fruit. A great vase of double bluebells branched in a radiance of blue at the head of the centre table. Down each table were bouquets of flowers. At each plate boutonniers were laid upon the souvenir cards of the complimentary escort and banquet. Thirty or forty hams, tongue, corned beef, rolls, tea, coffee, cake of various kinds, confectionery, fruit, including oranges, watermelons and bananas and ices made up the material things of the lunch. A dozen or more pretty waiter girls attended the wants of the guests and the hosts and their ladies. Over half of the party that sat at table were ladies. Many of the ladies wore white. The preliminary clatter was hushed for the words of grace and the blessing upon the feast which were said by Rev. W. H. Washburn, rector of Trinity church. At the head of the centre table sat Em. Com. Sir Kt. Frank E. Sleeper of Lewiston Commandery. At his left sat Em. Com. Sir Kt. Albro E. Chase of St. Alban Commandery.

Eminent Commander Sleeper said a few words felicitously at the opening of the banquet, remarking that the Knights had intended to have in readiness a 'bill of fare,' but that instead he would introduce a party of gentlemen who would tell them all about it, and what might, or could, or should have been done about it.

This served to introduce the Mendelssohn Quartette, who sang an amusing medley song entitled, "The Bill of Fare." A discussion of the lunch had meanwhile opened. Talk also opened across the tables. There was a running fire of comment. Perkins's orchestra, from the stage, opened a programme of choice selections of music. The lunch hour passed in music as well as in mastication.

The party broke up slowly at the close of the lunch. Knots of Knights and ladies gathered about the hall. After the tables were partly cleared, a row of settees was collected near the stage and an entertaining programme was given. The Mendelssohn Quartette sang several fine selections. Dennett gave Artemas Ward's Cheyenne City speech in the Babes in the Woods and other historical sketches.

A second orchestra was pressed into service in City Small Hall, where a dance was enjoyed by the younger part of the gathering.

The visiting Knights and ladies were provided with horse cars and carriages from the City Hall to the Auburn Maine Central station, where they took a special train for Portland, leaving at about 10.30 o'clock.

A Misapprehension.

The circular which the Treasury has recently sent out announcing the abrogation of the treaty of Washington, and that in consequence merchandise originating in the United States cannot be sent east or west, if part of the transportation is through Canada, without full payment of duty, has given rise to misapprehension in New England and in the lake region. The order does not apply to merchandise shipped from east to west in sealed bonded cars, under the Immediate Transportation act. It refers to the shipment of merchandise from some of the ports of Lake Ontario to Toronto, thence by rail to Lake Erie ports and thence west. There has been a considerable traffic of American merchandise from Northern New York to the West by schooners across Lake Ontario, where the goods broke bulk and were transported by rail to Lake Erie, thence by schooners West. All of this traffic will now necessarily be discontinued or the alternative of paying full duties on re-entering the United States. If, however, the entire transit shall be made in bulk through the Welland Canal, the provisions of the Treasury circular do not apply.

BASE BALL.

THE PORTLAND ASSOCIATION.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Portland League Base Ball and Athletic Association was held yesterday afternoon at the office of H. G. Briggs, Esq., at which 249 out of the 250 shares of stock were represented. H. G. Briggs was chosen temporary chairman. The first business transacted was voting on a proposition to change sec. 2 of the by-laws, so that the officers of the association shall consist of a president, secretary, treasurer and seven directors (instead of five). This was voted down by a stock vote—117½ in favor of the change and 131½ opposed.

A communication was read from Director H. G. Briggs, tendering his resignation, and F. W. Hobson was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

Robert F. Somers offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Mr. John L. Winship having been discharged from the position of manager by the board of directors of this association.

Resolved, That the stockholders, in stockholders' meeting assembled, believing in the integrity and business efficiency of Mr. Winship hereby instruct the directors of this association to reinstate him in the position from which he has been deposed.

Then followed considerable discussion as to whether or no the directors would take any notice of the above action, and on Mr. Somers' motion the following was passed—227 yeas, 27 noes.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the stockholders present that if the board of directors do not act in accordance with the previous resolution passed relating to Mr. Winship, that they be requested to resign.

Remarks were made by Messrs. Hobson, Somers, Small, Alden and others, all of whom spoke in favor of harmony in the association, directors and the club as the one thing necessary in order for the latter to play good ball and win the pennant. Mr. Hobson then resigned as a director in favor of R. F. Somers, but the latter said he did not want the place, and the resignation was not accepted.

Then it was suggested that as Dr. Vose had tendered his resignation as president and director, the present was a proper time to act upon it, and the Dr. was sent for, but he could not be found.

Mr. Briggs stated, however, that Dr. Vose's resignation had been laid before the directors at their last meeting, with a request that no action be taken upon it at present; that it would, however, be acted upon at the directors' regular meeting this evening, and that it had been stated to him it was the intention to elect R. F. Somers to fill the vacancy in the board of directors.

Some further talk was made about the heavy expenses the association were incurring at present, and winning no games to speak of, during which several stockholders stated that a full nine should ready to commence next day ball, and would win the pennant, and the expenses would not be nearly so great as at present.

Upon motion of Mr. Alberts, the meeting adjourned to tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the same place, when it is expected the result of to-night's directors' meeting will be announced.

HAVERHILLS 3, PORTLANDS 2.

In Haverhill, Mass., yesterday, the Haverhills defeated the Portlands in a well played game. McGarr's fielding and the work of both batteries were the features of the game. Umpire Quinn was struck by a foul tip in the third inning, and knocked out. The score:

THE PRESS.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 9.

We do not read anonymous letters and communications. The name and address of the writer are in all cases indispensable, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

We cannot undertake to return or preserve communications that are not used.

Mackin is a little nearer the penitentiary, but unfortunately he is still out of it.

The State department has heard nothing from Keiley since he sailed for Europe. Under the circumstances Keiley has nothing to say.

Gen. Noyes says he shall not accept his appointment as Pacific railroad commissioner. It is hard to say whether this will make the New York Sun feel better or worse.

The New York Times regrets exceedingly that the American small boy makes such a noise on the Fourth. The Times should move right over where it naturally belongs. England has no such small boys.

A writer on social topics recommends a book as the best thing to take to a summer resort. Very true. And if one is coming to Maine for the summer, the best kind of a book to bring along is a pocket book.

The Chicago Tribune speaks well. Mayor Harrison might very properly adopt the method he suggests to the horse railroad company, and submit the contest over the mayoralty to arbitration.

Why was it necessary for the President in his Tammany letter to speak of "restoring a free and just government?" No such opportunity presents itself to Mr. Cleveland. He found it all restored,

A Texas paper calls attention to statistics of population, which show that the African race in that State is increasing faster than the white. This is certainly encouraging. There is hope for Texas yet.

It remains to be seen whether or not Col. Dan Manning is joking on the civil service reform question. He has a grand opportunity to relieve all doubt by pulling Higgins up before the commission for violating the law.

We have heard a great deal of fast railroading about "The Wild Irishman," "The Flying Dutchman," etc. It might not be inappropriate to call the World's fast New England delivery train "The Flying Yankee.—New York World.

It would not be at all inappropriate if we didn't have a patent on the name down in Maine.

The Boston Post says the newly appointed postmasters at Portland and Biddeford are "old-fashioned, hard-working Democrats, and have got their reward." That's about the size of it, and if the administration would so put it nobody would find any fault. It is this cant and snivel about reform that is disgusting people.

The Pall Mall Gazette is now making vigorous attacks at the rate of four or five columns a day upon the growing immorality of the great city of London, in both high and low circles. Doubtless there is enough immorality to justify such attacks but there is grave doubt whether such things are not made worse by publicity in newspapers which circulate among all classes.

A Socialist orator at Chicago declared last Sunday that the time had come for those who hated law and order to rise up and burn and kill. He followed this up by sketching an elaborate programme of rapine and murder. He still lives outside the walls of a jail. It appears to be one of the prerogatives of a son of the wild West to talk at will without police interference. The liberty of which this country boasts undoubtedly includes freedom of speech, but freedom of speech does not mean license to incite to murder and robbery, and it is high time these so-called Socialists were made to understand it.

Col. A. Lowden Snowden, who for twenty-eight years has been superintendent of the mint at Philadelphia, has just retired voluntarily. A few nights ago the employes of the mint gathered in the adjusting room and after an address by one of their number which spoke in terms of highest compliment of his administration and especially of his fair and considerate treatment of his subordinates, presented him with an elegant gold watch valued at $700. A statement prepared by Col. Snowden of the operations of the mint during his connection with it is interesting: While Col. Snowden was Register the amount of bullion operated upon was $133,683,475.47—$122,146,826.55 in gold, and $11,536,648.92 in silver. While he was Chief Coiner, from 1866 to 1876, the amount of bullion operated upon was $259,946,297.90—$201,131,011.16 in gold, and $58,815,286.74 in silver. Upon this bullion there was a legal allowance for wastage of $159,380.69. The actual wastage was $16,053.42, a saving to the Government of $143,327.27. In other words, while the Government allowed $10 for wastage, there was only a wastage of $1. The total amount of bullion operated upon while Colonel Snowden was Superintendent of the mint (from March 4, 1879, to June 30, 1885), was 355,407,767.88 ounces, equal to $1,308,637,067.46. Upon this the legal allowance for wastage was $1,170,903.89, while the actual wastage was $76,258.14, a saving of $1,094,645.75. It will be seen that the total value of the gold and silver handled by Col. Snowden during his connection with the mint was $1,702,266,840.86, to which must be added $11,229,106.22 in minor coins issued by him as Chief Coiner and Superintendent, making $1,713,495,947.08 in all. The total amount of the gold by weight was 4,377 tons, and of silver 12,477—16,824 tons in all.

OFFENSIVE HYPOCRISY.

The appeal made by the PRESS to the Senate is preposterous. There is nither law nor reason to justify Mr. Barker's retention in office. The Senate has not the slightest pretext for rejecting the nomination of his successor, who is in every way amply qualified to discharge the duties of the position. Mr. Barker is suspended for undue partisanship, of which he is undoubtedly guilty. That he has been a good executive officer, as the PRESS alleges, is not the question in dispute. That he is not "an offensive partisan" is an assertion that no one will dare to make.—Portland Argus.

It will be seen that Mr. Barker's efficient work as postmaster in the line of his duty is admitted or fully implied in the above quotation from the organ of the Portland Democracy. Indeed in the face and eyes of the community which has experienced the advantage of having a live and energetic business man in the place and which is now enjoying the marked benefits of his administration it would have been idle to deny or belittle the service rendered. Why then has he been suspended?

If it is because he is a Republican and because the administration desires that the office holders throughout the country should be in full fellowship with it, deeming that the tie of party feeling will be an assurance of harmony of action, that those who think alike can more thorougly act together, then there was a reason for the suspension which plain people can understand and about which there can be no complaint. It would at least be a straight-forward, honest reason. But this is not the reason given. A pretense has been put forward unknown until recently in American politics. Mr. Barker is not removed because he is a Republican, but because he is an "offensive partisan" Had some man who has taken no interest in politics, who had the requisite deadness to his own belief in his country's interest which is needed to be virtuous in these days, the pretense might have been kept up. But the appointment of Mr. J. S. Palmer tears it all away. All that Mr. Barker has been on his side Mr. Palmer has been on his and more also. Mr. Barker has been on no committees; Mr. Palmer has been on all, conspicuously and known of all men. These things were to the discredit of neither of these gentlemen. Both exercised their rights and were equally respected in their exercise.

The new doctrine of "offensive partisanship" is offensive hypocrisy—nothing more or less. To say to American citizens that their tenure of office shall depend not on the decision of the people, or on their own merits, or on the faithful discharge of duty, but on the degree of indifference they manifest for the principles they pretend to believe in is to offer a premium for skulking. Such a course is un-American and has never been popular in this country since the British government made an American general a brigadier in the British army upon his becoming an inoffensive partisan.

Had the Democratic administration taken an honest, open course about this matter and proceeded to appoint the people who represented its views there would have been but one proper course for the Senate to take and that would have been to bow to the decision of the people and simply exercise the supervisory power of confirmation, to see that capable and suitable men were put in office without giving any preference to those much deserving patriots who had carried water on both shoulders. But now it will become the duty of the Senate to examine this new doctrine of offensive partisanship. If the administration means to plant itself on the doctrine that it regards politics of no consequence; if the authorities now at Washington do not care whether they administer through their own friends or not; if they think that Democrats as Democrats have no advantage for them over Republicans, then the Senate may very properly say that if the administration pretends to care nothing for politics on its side it shall not with the assistance of a Republican body offer a premium for lukewarmness and treachery on our side.

It will become the special duty of the Senators from this State to take a proper interest in this matter, for Maine has been especially honored by experiments in this new virtue of inoffensiveness. Not only does the childlike, lamb-like, inoffensive and non-partisan Capt. Chase, who still adorns our soil, look over the desk of the internal revenue office, where aforetime glared the fierce, cruel and unrelenting face of Mr. Rollins, but Pillsbury, Eben F., whom we exported on account of his inoffensiveness has been promoted to high office in Massachusetts, thereby displacing that most justifiably non-partisan of beings, a collector of internal revenue who was dead.

If there be any sense in this new doctrine of offensive partisanship, the wisdom must lie in the application, and the Senate must apply it as well as the President.

It is said by one who professes to know that Queen Victoria's household includes a trusted attendant, whose especial duty it is to look after and arrange the collection of photographs of members of the royal family that are arranged chronologically in a series of albums. The results of a series of observations carried out by the Hydrographical Bureau at Washington, in order to determine the length depth and duration of ocean waves, have been published. The largest wave observed is said to have had a length of half a mile, and to have spent itself in 23 seconds. During storms in the North Atlantic waves sometimes extend to a length of 500 and 600 feet, and last from 10 to 11 seconds. The most careful measurements of the heights of waves give from 44 to 48 feet as an extreme limit. The average height of great waves is about 30 feet. These measurements refer to ordinary marine action, and do not relate to earthquake action or other exceptional agencies.

Everybody on the Island of Malta works and slaves at least 16 hours a day, and he is fortunate indeed who counts his weekly stipend at a dollar and a half. There never has been a theatre or a circus or a secular holiday in Malta, and the popular amusement is confined to feast-days, when the people congregate in one place and make themselves sick on pink candy. In the evening, when the hot blistering sun goes down, you can go up to the basin, where the sea leaves a placid pool in the rocks, and indulge in the giddy dissipations of a bath. Twenty years ago the number of insane persons in the United States was only 24,042 In 1870 it reached 37,432, and in 1880 treatment was required for 91,950 lunatics. From 1870 to 1880 the increase of insanity was nearly 150 per cent., while that of the total population was about 36. The proportion of the insane is greatest in New England, while the increase has been most rapid in the Western States. In the State of New York there are thirty-five institutions for the care of these unfortunate people, accommodating 11,343 patients, while it is said there are 4,000 provided for at home. In America, apart from several large county asylums, there are eighth State and forty private institutions for the care of the insane, with a proper capacity for about 40,000, but containing 52,192, thus leaving probably 45,000 to be cared for elsewhere.

Solid Facts —FOR THE— WORKINGMEN

Special attention is called to the fact that all our goods are manufactured by the mechanics of New England, not "out West" as most of our competitors advertise theirs are. Therefore our motto is, "To live and give our New England mechanics a chance to live also," or in other words leave our money with those from whom we get it.

BARNUM RETURNS NO MORE.

GREETING AND FAREWELL TO HIS AMERICAN PATRONS.

With mingled regret and pride, I announce to my patrons that this is positively the last chance to see my GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH and the GREAT LONDON CIRCUS on American Soil.

I regret being forced to take away from my fellow citizens an exhibition which they have enthusiastically appreciated and lavishly patronized, but the amusement seeking people of Europe demand the opportunity of seeing this combination which has a world-wide reputation, and no counterpart in any country. I have made all arrangements and contracts for its transportation in its vast entirety across the Atlantic. My able and experienced partners, Messrs. James A. Bailey and James L. Hutchinson, will conduct this unparalleled enterprise under my personal supervision.

The public's obedient servant,

WIT AND WISDOM.

There may be seen in the window of a dirty little shop in an obscure part of London this announcement: "Goods removed, messages taken, carpets beat and poetry composed on any subject."

CURE FOR CROUP.—Use Dr. Thomas's Eclectric Oil according to directions. It is the best remedy for all sudden attacks of croup, pain and inflammation, and for injuries.

Musical Item: "One of these dollars is counterfeit." "How can you tell?" "Simply by sound. Just tap the genuine and hear how clear it sounds. That's tenor. Other Notice when I tap the other. That's base."

The latest tea-table luxury—Iced tea (a la Russe) with LACTART in place of lemon, delicious and exhilarating. Try it. Druggists and Grocers.

Josh Billings: "When I see a man with a marked excentricity I am reddy to make a wager that the excentricity iz about all thare iz of him."

Never buy baking powders which contain Alum or Ammonia, but always use Congress Yeast Powder, a Perfectly Pure Cream Tartar powder.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

REVIEW OF PORTLAND WHOLESALE MARKET.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING, July 1.

Business in all departments has been very light, as usual immediately after the Fourth, particularly groceries, transactions so far this month being unusually small. The Flour market continues dull without quotable change, but last week's rates are fully sustained in sympathy with a stronger tone in wheat. Prime has just made his winter wheat estimate, based on reports from 2,000 points in the winter wheat belt, and puts the crop at 182,000,000 bushels. The McCormick Harvesting Machine Company claims a shortage over 100,000,000 bushels in the States of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri and all of Kansas, and adds that, allowing a half crop to the other winter wheat growing States, there will be a shortage of upward of 175,000,000 bushels in the total product of winter wheat as compared with last year. The market for Pork and Lard has been quiet throughout the week; no variation in quotations. Grain steady. Sugars are active and stronger at 7⅛c for granulated and 6⅝c for Extra C. Cheese easier. Eggs weak and lower. New] apples at 1 00@1 50 ℔ crate. Oranges higher. Teas dull with limited inquiry. Molasses firm and unchanged. Raisins steady and firmly held at quotations. Turpentine has advanced to 42@49c. In Oil we notice a drop on Linseed, Boiled and Lard, and a rise of ¼c for Portland Refined Petroleum. Cordage lower for all kinds. Fresh Beef firm and steady; no change but at Chicago prices have ruled higher; sides 8@9c; hind quarters 10@12c, fore quarters 5½@6½c, rounds with flanks 8@8½c, rumps and loins 13@15c, rumps 13@14c, loins 14@17c, rattles 5@5½, backs 7@8c, chucks 5@6c, and short rib cuts 10 12c. The market for Fish remains the same. Mackerel firmer with fair demand for old stock; the total catch up to July 1, by the New England fleet, was 24,483 bbls against 41,220 bbls for the same time in 1884. In Drugs, &c., Camphor is higher and Quinine lower. Considerable change will be noticed in Copper, Hay is selling at $16 @$17. Strawberries at retail sold to-day at 9@10c.

Imports.

MONCTON, NS. Schr Jane—3400 railroad ties to R B Emery.

WESTPORT, NS. Schr Henrietta—7000 live lobsters 10 qtl dry fish 80 dz eggs to market.

BRIEF JOTTINGS.

Yesterday was a delightful summer day. The mercury indicated 68° at sunrise, 80° at noon, 76° at sunset; wind West.

Over 3000 people rode on the roller coaster Saturday, at Peaks' Island.

Ditson's Musical Record for July is out, and is an interesting number.

Capt. B. F. Jones has gone down the coast in the Clarence with a party of Boston gentlemen on board.

The yacht Mist, having on board Wilbet E. Cummings and friends of Woburn, Mass., was in the harbor yesterday.

Today Machigonne engine company will entertain the Biddeford engine company at Long Island.

Buckley and Sweeney will row again for the Payne medal this evening, one mile and a half with turn. The start will be made from the Cumberland boat house.

Officers Sterling, Skillings and Massure yesterday seized two quart bottles of rum from a yard in the rear of No. 29 York street.

By the invitation of Mr. Sawyer, the Peaks' Island engine company partook of an excellent supper at the Peaks' Island House, Monday evening.

Mr. J. W. Brackett has had a mammoth range built in the kitchen of his restaurant at Greenwood Garden. The range is said to be the largest in the city.

At the meeting of the Board of Overseers of the Poor Tuesday, the contract for furnishing coal for the almshouse during the current municipal year was awarded to H. L. Paine & Co.

At the meeting of the executive committee of the Grand Army yesterday, bills were approved and audited. The committee had their photographs taken by Lanson. They adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

The Great Bond Case.

Some time ago Marcus P. Norton, Esq., a gentleman who it will be remembered instituted a number of suits against different cities to recover damages for alleged infringement of a valve patent—brought suit in the United States Circuit Court to recover the value of a large number of bonds of the European and North American Railroad Company, issued a long time ago, and prior to the lease of that road to the Maine Central Railroad Company. It is understood that Hon. E. F. Pillsbury became interested in the case, owning a large number of these bonds. The case was said to have been closed but yesterday it was announced that a motion would be filed and argued by H. D. Hadlock, Esq., and Hon. A. McMichael for Marcus P. Norton, trustee, complainant, vs. the European and North American Railway, the Consolidated European and North American Railway Company, Maine Central Railway Company, Hannibal Hamlin, William B. Hayford, Noah Woods, Edward Cushing and Benjamin E. Smith, defendants. The motion is to take judgment against Benjamin E. Smith, pro confesso.

Hon. William L. Putnam, one of the defendants' counsel, stated yesterday that the bill had been taken against Benjamin E. Smith, pro confesso, a long time ago. This present motion is not one of importance but a mere matter of course.

Warren Brandus, Esq., of Boston, is attorney in the case for Mr. Pillsbury.

Hiram Bealals' Will.

The will of the late Hiram Beals has been presented for probate. The testator gives the dwelling house and lot, with furniture, etc., on Spring street, near Park, to Tennie E. King of Oxford, but this bequest does not include the store of M. A. Dillingham, on the corner of Park street, or within 15 feet of its easterly wall.

All the rest of the property the executor has power to convert into cash, and to pay legacies of $100 apiece to Luther Pennell, Freeport; J. Pennell, Westbrook; Mrs. Lucilla F. Guin, Revere, Mass.; Mrs. Sarah Riley, Kittery; Mrs. Dora G. Parsons, York; Miss Isabella Ayer; Miss Jennie Pennell, Gray; Mrs. Josie Duncan, Kittery; Hiram B. King, Mechanic Falls; and Alice M. King. To Tennie E. King is also left $1,000; to the Widows' Wood Society, Female Orphan Asylum and Home for Aged Women $100 each.

The residue of the property, after paying the legacies, is to be equally divided between Lucilla F. Guin, Sarah Riley, Isabella Ayer, Mrs. E. Dolley of Gray, and Miss Jennie Pennell.

Charles F. Libby is appointed executor, and the will is dated January 2d, 1885.

Ashore on Cushing's Island.

The schooner Jane, from Moncton, N. B., bound for this port, ran on Cushing's Island, near the bell buoy, yesterday morning, owing to the heavy fog prevailing. She hilged and was towed to this city by the tug Salem. She has a big hole knocked in her bottom. She lost her deck load of railroad ties, and they filled up the channel between Cushing's and Peaks' islands.

Fire on High Street.

The alarm from box No. 61 shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon was for a fire in the house No. 192 High street, occupied in the upper part by Henry B. Pennell and in the lower part by Charles E. Merrill, who owns the house. The fire caught from an oil stove, the bottom of which fell out in Mr. Pennell's kitchen. The fire was almost entirely confined to the rear of the house. The water did more damage than the flames. The kitchen furniture of Mr. Pennell and also the apartments of Mr. Merrill underneath were somewhat damaged. Mr. Pennell's loss will be some $50 or $75 on which there is an ample insurance. The total loss on the house and furniture may amount to some $300 or $400, which is covered by insurance.

The Drummer Boy.

City Hall was again crowded last evening at the repetition of the entertainment given by Robert H. Hendershot, the drummer boy of the Rappahannock, under the auspices of Thatcher Post, G. A. R. Gen. Jas. A. Hall, Department Commander of Maine, presided; and the drummer boy was assisted by Miss C. Lillie Hamlin, Fifer Corliss and Major Daniel S. Murphy of the Mexican War Veterans, who has so ably played the bass drum at a number of Mr. Hendershot's appearances in Maine.

PORTLAND AND OGDENSBURG.

A Favorable Report from the Railroad Committee.

At the meeting of the railroad committee of the New Hampshire legislature in Concord Tuesday, the petition for authority to reorganize the Portland and Ogdensburg railroad company was again considered. The bill proposed is similar to the bill passed by the Maine legislature last winter. The committee voted unanimously to report the bill, which thus goes to the legislature with the endorsement of the committee.

The bill passed the House of Representatives yesterday.

That Mysterious Death.

In Saturday's paper, July 4th, mention was made of the sudden and mysterious death of a Mrs. Lindsley, said to be from Portland, at Alton Bay. Mrs. Lindsley was buried by the authorities and proves to have been Mrs. Sarah Lindsley, who formerly resided at Suncook, N. H. She had recently visited Suncook, and on leaving there stated that she was going to Alton Bay. She was an eccentric woman a little over 60, and a widow without children. Her husband was killed in the early anti-slavery times in Kansas. He was a prominent Free Mason, and Mrs. Lindsley wore his Masonic pin. She was a woman of property, owning a tenement house and land at Suncook, and was understood to have property in Lowell and in Maine. She was never known to speak of any relative excepting a sister, whom she would mention as living in Lowell. Before leaving Suncook a few weeks ago Mrs. Lindsley told a friend that she was going to Alton Bay and that she had a place under her cottage where she kept a portion of her things, which undoubtedly accounts for the fact that the authorities after her death were unable to find any papers establishing her identity or home. The woman always appeared to have plenty of money, and the officer who furnished this information believes that the investigation of her case will unearth a large property.

Andersonville.

Comrade Frank W. Smith of Toledo, Ohio, spoke for over two hours last evening in Y. M. C. A. Hall to a large and appreciative audience. The rebel prison and the sufferings of the Union soldiers there confined were graphically described, and the numerous interesting anecdotes with which the lecture was interspersed commanded the strictest attention of the audience during the entire evening. As on Friday night, Mr. Smith spoke only in a spirit of kindness, but his subject called for an allusion to the heartless cruelty which permitted the Union soldiers to starve when an abundance of grain was growing just outside the stockade, and allowed the poor fellows to burrow in the earth for shelter from the elements when the prison was situated close to a forest. Mr. Smith's delivery is good and he puts a refreshing vigor into all his utterances.

Mrs. J. C. Newton displayed her elocutionary powers in the rendering of the poems "Twenty Years Ago" and "Welcome Home."

Sunday morning Mr. Smith is to speak at the West Congregational church.

Camp Gibson.

Situated at the left of the island and on the side of the hill rising to White Head bluff at Cushing's Island, is "Camp Gibson." This is the second year that the Camp Gibsons have occupied these grounds, and the many improvements noticeable over last season show that they are rapidly reducing camping to a science. The tent equipage is very complete, consisting of four tents, the largest being 18x30 feet.

In connection with the camp is a beautiful eight-oared barge and a smaller one called the Wavelet. The barge, which was built expressly for the camp, is a very pretty boat, about 20 feet long, fitted with the Davis patent oars and rowlocks, and furnished with every convenience. The members of the camp are as follows: Messrs. Cummings, Hersey, Tufts, Wood, Gledhill, S. Hersey, Lappin, Clark, Buckley and Kimball.

School Excursions.

The St. Lawrence street Sabbath School will go on their annual picnic to White Head tomorrow. They will go by the steamer Cadet. Particulars will be found in the entertainment column.

The Catholic Orphan Asylum picnic at Little Diamond Island occurred yesterday. A large number of children were in attendance.

At the adjourned meeting of the Police Examining Board the following applicants passed their surgical examination: Augustus H. Parker, Ward 1; Edward A. Webster, Ward 7.

Burglary at Yarmouth.

The residence of H. L. Hitchcock at Yarmouth, was entered by burglars yesterday morning early, who took Mr. Hitchcock's trousers from his room and stole $9 from his pocket-book which was in one of the pockets.

Cape Elizabeth High School Alumni.

The Cape Elizabeth High School alumni met at the Town Hall last evening and held their annual reunion. A large and social party was present, and all enjoyed a very pleasant reunion. After doing ample justice to an excellent collation, and listening to several entertaining after-dinner speeches, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—S. D. Plummer.
Vice President—Miss Clara A. Jordon.
Secretary and Treasurer—Charles E. Jordan.
Necrologist—Miss Minnie L. Robinson.
Marshal—R. H. Jordan.
Orator—E. C. Verrill.
Poetess—Isabel Eaton.
Toastmaster—J. E. Marriner.

K. of P. Installation.

The following officers of Longfellow Lodge, No. 43, Knights of Pythias, were installed last evening:

C. C.—John F. Barrett.
V. C.—L. A. Gould.
P.—Charles M. Ilsley.
M. at A.—Joseph H. Hutchings.

After the services of installation P. C. Thomas G. Loring presented in behalf of the lodge a Past Chancellor's jewel to Herbert F. Libby, the retiring Chancellor Commander. The jewel is an elegant one, and the remarks of Dr. Loring were a fitting accompaniment.

Sebago—Levi F. Blake to Ellen M. Pray, land and buildings, $40.
Bridgton—Irene E. Davis to A. H. Walker, land, $862.75.

Casco Bay.

The Transcript says: "The early name of our bay, as caught from the natives by the famous Capt. John Smith as he sailed along our coast, in 1614, was Uh-kos-is-co, rendered by him Aucocisco. This in English mouths, it is believed, became contracted to Casco, long the name applied to the early settlement here as well as the region round about. The meaning of this word has been matter of discussion, but according to the best interpreters it is 'Heron,' from the bird which then frequented these waters, as it still does. The heron which breeds on our islands is the night heron, or squawk. It is nearly as large as a goose, with white throat and breast, blue wings, and long yellowish legs. It has a long sharp bill, the top of its head is black, and from it projects two long white feathers which fall down over its back. It breeds on our islands abundantly, but winters in the South. A recent visit to a heronry on one of our islands disclosed some of the peculiar features of these breeding places. The nests are built on the branches of tall spraces, and are usually occupied for many years, being abandoned only under the most relentless persecution. The heronries are usually located in low, wet, swampy places, and are rendered exceedingly repulsive by the excrements of the birds, the trees and ground being white with them, and the air filled with a penetrating odor, to which is added the stench of decaying fish on which the herons feed. The eggs are about the size of a hen's egg, thin shelled, and of a pale, light sea-green color. The young are open-mouthed and clamorous, and fiercely repel approach. They climb to the upper branches, where, hanging by their bill and claws they are fed by the parent bird. Two broods are raised every season, and the first brood is frequently seen gathering around the nest in which their younger brothers and sisters rest, waiting with them to be fed. They are omnivorous eaters, and must tax the industry of their parents to the utmost."

Romance at Togus.

The following romantic account is related at the Soldiers' National Home, Togus: "It was in 1851, in the city of Lowell, Mass., that domestic troubles caused the separation of a husband and wife. The husband disappeared, how or where no one knew. The wife was left with four children, three boys and one girl, from 7 to 11 years of age, to care for. The elder son helped her till his death the following year; but she managed to get along, gave the children a common school education and put the boys to trades. Years passed—the husband and father still missing. The war broke out, the last of the remaining sons enlisted in 1861, in the third New Hampshire volunteers, served four years and came to the Home, broken and disabled. For years he had been searching for his father, found he had enlisted; but his relatives on his father's side said that he had a considerable sum of money at his discharge, and they supposed him murdered. He gave him up in despair. June 26th, Wm. Thomas, a disabled soldier from the 31st Maine Volunteers, was admitted to the Home, but being quite ill was taken at once to the hospital. His surname was the same as that of a former patient, and the nurse casually mentioned it in his remarks. The patient desired to see this man, George S. Thomas, as he believed him to be his nephew as he supposed his own son was killed on one of the great battlefields of the war. The supposed nephew called, and a very few questions and answers reunited father and son, separated for 34 years. Perhaps there may be another chapter, as the mother still lives, and like other romances, this may end happily.

Entered for the Races.

Following is a list of the Maine horses entered for the three days' races at the Lawrence, Mass., Riding Park, July 14-16:

1. P. Woodbury, Portland.....b. g. Hoosac
J. F. Haines, Portland.....br. g. Jack Spratt
W. G. Morrill, Pittsfield....blk. g. Pinmed Knight
J. F. Haines, Portland.....br. m. Nellie B.
J. F. Haines, Portland.....br. m. Birdie S.
I. P. Woodbury, Portland.....b. g. Slippery Dick
W. G. Morrill, Pittsfield.....gr. m. Surprise

The above horses are also entered for the races at the July meeting of the Merrimac Valley Circuit in Lowell, Mass., which opens Tuesday, July 21st, and continues three days.

The New York Scientific Times in the course of a long and elaborate article in its last issue upon the impurities of New York's water supply says:

Now in view of the almost certain arrival of the cholera upon our shores during the coming months it is almost impossible to overestimate the danger in which the people of New York are placed, for the researches of Prof. Tyndall of London, of Pasteur of Paris and of Dr. Koch, of Berlin, all go to prove that the bacterial germ, or "comma bacillus," of cholera is more rapidly propagated in impure water than in any other known vehicle.

WHAT, THEN, IS TO BE DONE?

Science indicates that the true safety of the community will lie in using only the pure spring waters that are found in various parts of the country, rising in the mountains and valleys far away from any possibility of contamination, and under the most favorable geological conditions. That is to say, the stratifications through which the water passes before it bubbles to the surface act as Nature's great system of filtration, giving to men a water that is absolutely pure and wholesome. In the light of chemical analysis no natural water yet made available possesses such great merits as that known as the Underwood spring water, which is found at Falmouth Foreside, Me. This water has a record of more than 200 years and has always been famed in Maine, but it has only recently been placed within the reach of the public of New York.

The Underwood water is far superior to any imported article—not even excepting Appollinaris and also to any and all of the artificial waters. It is delicious to the taste and will keep good for a long time. The company are prepared to supply it in bottles either in the natural condition or ærated, and the price is so reasonable that it is possible for every respectable family to keep it in the house. It is invaluable under any circumstances, and in case the cholera does make its appearance here it will be simply priceless. The water is absolutely free from organic impurities—as shown by the analysis—and whether in sickness or in health stands as a beverage without a peer.
